

Out of the depths

שִׁיר הַמַּעְלוֹת.

מִמַּעְמְקִים קְרָאתִיךָ יי:

אֲדַנִּי שְׁמָעָה בְּקוֹלִי. תִּהְיֶינָה אַזְנוֹיךָ קְשׁוּבוֹת לְקוֹל תַּחֲנוּנָי:

אִם עֲוֹנוֹת תִּשְׁמַרְרֶנָּה אֲדַנִּי מִי יַעֲמֵד:

כִּי־עַמָּךְ הַסְּלִיחָה לְמַצַּן תִּנְרָא:

קוֹיִתִי יי קוֹחָה נַפְשִׁי וְלִדְבָרוֹ הוֹסֵלֵתִי:

נַפְשִׁי לֹאֲדַנִּי מִשְׁמַרְרִים לְבִקְרָה שְׁמָרִים לְבִקְרָה:

יִחַל יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶל־יי. כִּי־עַם־יי הַחֲסֵד וְהַרְבֵּה עִמּוֹ פְּדוּת:

וְהוּא יַפְדֶּה אֶת־יִשְׂרָאֵל מִכָּל עֲוֹנוֹתָיו:

Out of the depths I call to You, O Lord.

Hear my cry, O Lord;

Be attentive to my plea.

If You kept account of all sins,

O Lord, who could survive?

But with You there is forgiveness;

Therefore we revere You.

I wait for the Lord with all my being,

With hope I await God's word.

My soul yearns for the Lord

More anxiously than watchmen yearn for the dawn.

O Israel, put your hope in the Lord,

For the Lord is abundantly kind.

Great is the Lord's power to redeem;

May God redeem our people from all their iniquities.

YOM KIPPUR EVENING SERVICE / KOL NIDRE

The Tallit: a symbol of holiness

On putting on the Tallit, say:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם
אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַתְּעַמֵּף בְּצִיצִית:

Baruh ata Adonai, Eloheynu meleh ha-olam, asher kid-shanu b'mitz-votav, v'tzivanu l'hit-ateyf ba-tzitzit.

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through the Mitzvot, and enjoined upon us the wearing of the Tallit.

How can we enter?

On this sacred night, O Lord,

We have entered Your house—

We who are unworthy to enter.

For who may sojourn in Your sanctuary?

Who may dwell upon Your holy mountain?

They who walk before You in innocence and integrity,

Who act with perfect righteousness,

And speak the truth even in their hearts.

How, then, dare we enter Your house, O Lord,

Knowing that our failings are so many?

We come strengthened by the assuring promise:

“The Lord is near to all who call—

To all who call upon the Lord in truth.”

O cleanse us of all self-righteousness and conceit;

Teach us to speak to You in humility and in truth;

And teach us, O Lord, to listen . . .

MAARIV LE-YOM KIPPUR / KOL NIDRE

To serve You in truth

Eternal God, source of hope in every generation,
Source of strength to those who seek You,
Grant us, we pray, a clearer vision of Your truth,
A greater faith in Your redeeming power,
And a more confident assurance of Your sustaining love.

When the path before us seems dark,
Help us to walk trustingly;
When Your presence seems hidden,
Help us to hold fast to Your commandments;

When insight falters, let loyalty stand firm;
When courage wavers, let conviction remain steadfast;
When faith is weak, let love prevail.

Speak to us again with the still small voice of Your spirit,
And purify our hearts to serve You in truth.

May we speak the truth

O Lord our God, many are the evasions and deceptions which we practice upon others and upon ourselves.

We long to speak and hear truth only, yet time and again, from fear of loss or hope of gain, from dull habit or cruel deliberation, we speak half-truths, we twist facts, we are silent when others lie, and we lie to ourselves.

But we stand now before You, and our words and our thoughts speed to One who knows them before we utter them. We know we cannot lie in Your presence.

May our worship teach us to practice truth in speech and in thought before You, and before one another.

Forgiving

Ribono shel olam,
I hereby forgive
Whoever has hurt me,
And whoever has done me any wrong;
Whether deliberately or accidentally,
Whether by word or by deed.
May no one be punished on my account.
May it be Your will,
O Lord my God and God of my ancestors,
That I sin no more,
That I not revert to my old ways,
That I not anger You any more with my actions,
And that I not do that which is evil in Your sight.

Wipe away my sins
With Your great compassion,
Rather than through sickness or suffering.
May these words of my mouth
And the prayers that are in my heart
Be acceptable before You, O Lord,
My Rock and my Redeemer.

Medieval prayer, adapted by Jack Riemer

Seek the Lord while the Lord may be found;
Call upon the Lord while the Lord is near.

Let the wicked abandon their ways,
And the evil their designs.

Let them return to the Lord,
Who will have mercy upon them;

Let them return to our God,
Who is ever ready to forgive.

Based on Isaiah 55:6-7

הַשִּׁיבֵנוּ יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְנִשְׁקָבָה חֵדֶשׁ יְמֵינוּ כְּקֶדֶם:

Ha-shuveynu Adonai eyleha v'na-shuva, hadeysh yameynnu k'kedem.
Turn us to You, O Lord, and we shall return; renew our days as of old.

A MEDITATION BEFORE KOL NIDRE

🌊 Eternal God, who calls us to repentance, we are grateful for the opportunity to answer Your call, to forsake our sins, and to turn to You with all our hearts.

Yet we know that repentance is difficult. We know that there have been times when we resolved to mend our ways and did not succeed.

Even the admission that we have done wrong does not come easily: our pride is as tall as the mountains; our vanity is as wide as the sea; and excuses abound.

But before You there are no secrets. To You all stands revealed. Our pettiness and our greed, our selfishness and our weakness, our running to do evil and our limping to do good—all these are known to You.

On this night of atonement, we yearn to become better than we have been. For You, O Lord, have given us the great gift of atonement, enabling individuals and communities to return to You and to do Your will.

Open our hearts to the call of this sacred night, so that the words of our prayers may remain with us to renew us and to refine us. May our deeds make us worthy to hear Your Divine assurance, "Salaḥti—I have forgiven."

Seek the Lord while the Lord may be found;
Call upon the Lord while the Lord is near.

Let the wicked abandon their ways,
And the evil their designs.

Let them return to the Lord

Who will have mercy upon them;

Let them return to our God,

Who is ever ready to forgive.

(Isaiah 55:6-7)

אֹר זָרַע לַצַּדִּיק וְלַיִשָּׁר יִלֵּב שְׂמֵחָה:

Or zaru la-tzadik, ul-yish-rey leyv simḥah.

Light is sown for the righteous, joy for the upright in heart.

We stand before our God

🌊 Read in the Synagogues of Germany, Kol Nidre Eve 1935

In this hour all Israel stands before God, the Judge and Forgiver. In God's presence let us all examine our ways, our deeds, and what we have failed to do.

Where we transgressed, let us openly confess:

"We have sinned!"

Determined to return to God, let us pray: "Forgive us."

We confess our sins; the sins of the individual and the sins of the community.

We express our contempt for the lies concerning us and the defamation of our religion and its testimonies. We have trust in our faith and in our future.

Who made known to the world the mystery of the Eternal, the One God? Who imparted to the world the comprehension of purity of conduct and purity of family life?

Who taught the world respect for the human being, created in the image of God? Who spoke of the commandment of righteousness of social justice?

In all this we see manifest the spirit of the prophets, the divine revelation to the Jewish people. It grew out of our faith and it is still growing.

We stand before our God, on whom we rely. From God issue the truth and the glory of our history, our fortitude amidst all changes of fortune, our endurance in distress.

Our history is a history of nobility of soul, of human dignity. It is a history to which we have recourse when attack and grievous wrong are directed against us, when affliction and calamity befall us.

God has led our ancestors from generation to generation. God will guide us and our children through these days. We stand before our God, strengthened by the commandments that we fulfill.

We bow to God and stand erect before mortals. We worship God and remain firm in all vicissitudes. Humbly we trust in God and our path lies clear before us; we see our future.

All Israel stands before God in this hour. In our prayers, in our hope, in our confession, we are one with all Jews on earth. We look upon each other and know who we are; we look up to our God and know what shall abide.

Leo Baeck (adapted)

TO CONVENE AND CONSENT

By the authority of the heavenly court
And by the authority of this earthly court,
With Divine consent
And with the consent of this congregation,
We hereby declare it permissible
To pray with those who have transgressed.

Kol Nidre

All vows, oaths, and promises
Which we made to God and were not able to fulfill—
From last Yom Kippur to this Yom Kippur—
May all such vows between ourselves and God be annulled.
May they be void and of no effect.
May we be absolved of them and released from them.
May these vows not be considered vows,
These oaths not be considered oaths,
And these promises not be considered promises.

TO SEEK ATONEMENT

For transgressions between a human being and God, repentance on Yom Kippur brings atonement. For transgressions between one human being and another, Yom Kippur brings no atonement until the injured party is reconciled.

On this night of atonement

O God of forgiveness, on this night of atonement we come before You, haunted by memories of duties unperformed, of promptings disobeyed, of beckonings ignored.

We confess that there were opportunities for kindness and service which we allowed to pass by in the year just ended.

We are ashamed of sins committed with evil intent, as well as of follies committed unwittingly, or even with good intentions.

Make us honest enough to recognize our transgressions, big enough to admit them, strong enough to forsake them.

Humble us by showing us what we are; exalt us with a vision of what we may yet grow to be.

Keep us ever mindful of our dependence upon You, and help us to understand Your need of us.

United with You in a holy partnership, may we dedicate our lives to Your law of love.

Help us to create homes filled with joy and harmony, and to labor for peace among communities and nations.

On this sacred night, grant us atonement, and help us to find serenity within ourselves.

Kindle within us the fires of faith, and set aglow our courage to live the words we pray.

Every word for the sake of Heaven

Sovereign of the universe, God of mercy and compassion,
May it be Your will this day and every day,
That I guard my mouth and my tongue
From stumbling into sinful speech.

Keep me from the sin of gossip, as the Torah says:
“You shall not carry a false report.”

Keep me also from the sin of talebearing, as the Torah says:
“You shall not go about as a talebearer among your people.”

May I be careful never to speak against a single person,
And, surely, never to speak against the house of Israel.

Keep me from the grievous sin of speaking
Against the ways of the Holy One, who is blessed.

Keep me from speaking falsehood, as the Torah says:
“From every false matter, keep far away.”

Keep me from flattery, frivolity, and deception,
From humiliating another human being with words.

May my words be free from pride;
May they never be spoken in anger.

May every word that I speak, and every deed I perform
Be uttered and done for the sake of Heaven.

Based on a prayer by the Hafetz Hayyim

All vows

All vows, promises, and commitments made in Your presence—
May we be given the strength to keep them:

Our vows to ourselves, commitments to self-discipline—

May we take our own lives seriously enough to heed them,

Honoring our resolves in the way we eat and drink,

The way we work and rest, the way we regulate our lives.

Commitments made to loved ones and friends,

Pledges made to worthwhile causes—

Help us to become as compassionate and generous

As we sought to be at those noble moments.

The promises we made to worship and to study—

We meant them when we made them,

But distractions were many, and our wills were weak.

This time, may we be strong enough;

May our better selves prevail.

Promises made in the synagogue by young people

Who glimpsed what life as Jews might hold in store for them—

May devotion and idealism be with them all their days.

Our marriage vows—may they endure

Through dark days and through dull days,

Through fatigue and through frustration—

May our love prove strong and our faith firm.

O God, we meant the promises we made

To You, to each other, and to ourselves,

Even as we mean the vows we silently make tonight.

Reach down to us as we strive to reach up toward You;

Give us the strength and self-respect, the fidelity and vision,

To grow to become the people we have sworn to be.

All worthy vows and commitments which we make

From this Yom Kippur until the next—

May we be faithful enough and firm enough to keep them.

Harold Kushner (adapted)

THE SABBATH PSALM

It is good to thank You, O Lord,
To sing praises to Your name,

To proclaim Your love every morning,
And Your faithfulness every night.

To the sound of the ten-string lyre,
With the music of the lute and harp.

Your works, O Lord, bring me gladness;
Of Your deeds, I joyously sing.

How great are Your deeds, O Lord;
How profound are Your designs.

The superficial cannot comprehend,
The foolish cannot grasp this:

Though the wicked may thrive like grass,
And doers of evil seem to flourish,

Yet their doom is sure to come,
For Yours is the ultimate triumph.

Those who oppose You shall be destroyed;
Workers of evil are sure to be routed.

You have given me extraordinary power;
I am like one who has been anointed.

I see the defeat of my foes,
I hear the doom of my enemies.

The righteous will grow strong like the palm tree,
They will thrive like the cedar of Lebanon.

Planted in the house of the Lord,
They will flourish in the courts of our God.

They will bear fruit even in old age,
They will remain vital and vigorous,

Proclaiming that the Lord is just,
My Rock, in whom there is no unrighteousness.

Psalm 92

As we praise God's greatness and might in the "Sabbath Psalm," we look forward, with the Psalmist, to the day when the righteous will flourish, when all of God's children will live in harmony and justice, and when the spirit of Shabbat, symbol of a perfected world, will inspire all human conduct.

We acclaim God in song and prayer

The God who calls us to repentance
Is the God we acclaim in song and prayer.
It is God who gives meaning to our lives,
Guiding us through darkness and light.
To God we lift our voices, in hope and thanksgiving.
Lord, Your word brings on the evening twilight;
The heavens proclaim Your glory;

And we, Your creatures on earth,
Behold in wonder Your endless miracles.
Help us to recognize Your guiding power
In distant galaxies and in our own souls.

Teach us Your law of righteousness and love
So that Your spirit may govern our lives.

Source of peace, bless our worship;
May our meditations find favor in Your sight.

May our gratitude for Your wonders
Lead us, in love, to Your service,

So that, like the changing seasons, the days, the nights,
Our lives, too, will proclaim Your glory. Amen.

ON THE BARHU

In the ancient Temple in Jerusalem, a Priest would greet the first appearance of the morning sun with the exclamation:

“Praise the Lord, Source of all blessing” (Nehemiah 9:5).

This formula was later adopted to summon a congregation to worship. The reply of the congregation, “Praised be the Lord, Source of all blessing, forever” (which is mentioned in early Tannaitic sources), unites the congregation and the leader in the act of worship.

In later generations, preliminary prayers were added to the Morning Service, while in the sixteenth century, Kabbalat Shabbat Psalms and Leḥa Dodi were introduced prior to the Barhu on Sabbath Eve.

Thus, while at these services Barhu is no longer the first prayer, its brief and stirring summons still evokes a reverent response, and also calls to mind the opening words of the Torah Blessings.

GOD RULES SUPREME

On Shabbat:

לְבַשׁ יְיָ עוֹתְמוֹתֶיךָ
אֲרֵי-תִכְבֹּן תִּכְבֵּל בְּלִתְמוֹתַי:
מְעוֹלָם אָפְתָה:

לְאֵרֶךְ יָמִים: ִ׃

You, O Lord, are Sovereign, crowned with majesty,
Adorned with splendor, supreme in strength.

You established the earth securely;
You created a world that stands firm.

Your throne is established from of old;
You are eternal.

The rivers lift up their voice,
They raise a mighty roar.

The mighty breakers of the sea declare,
“God rules supreme.”

Your decrees are dependable;
Holiness befits Your creation;
You are the Lord of eternity.

BARĤU: The call to worship

Reader:

Praise the Lord, Source of all blessing.

Congregation and Reader:

Praised be the Lord, Source of all blessing, forever.

MAARIV ARAVIM: Lord of night and day

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe,
Whose word brings on the dusk of evening.

Your wisdom opens the gates of dawn;
Your understanding regulates time and seasons.

The stars above follow their appointed rounds,
In response to Your divine will.

You create day and night;

You alternate darkness and light.

You remove the day and bring on the night;

You separate one from the other.

We call You "Lord of heavenly hosts";

You are our living God.

May You rule over us as You rule over nature;

Praised are You, O Lord, who brings the evening dusk.

Two blessings before and after the "Evening Shema"

 The Mishnah prescribes that the reading of the Evening Shema be preceded by two blessings and followed by two blessings (Beraḥot 1:4).

The first blessing before the Evening Shema, Ha-Maariv Aravim ("Your command brings on the evening twilight"), acknowledges that the orderliness of nature manifests the continuous activity of a loving God.

The second blessing before the Evening Shema, Ahavat Olam ("With everlasting love"), expresses gratitude for the love which God has bestowed upon the House of Israel, as reflected in the Divine gift of Torah.

The first blessing after the Evening Shema is the Redemption Blessing; it closes the Emet ve-Emunah ("True and certain . . .") which is a reaffirmation of the principles articulated and implied in the Shema, and a recollection of Divine acts of deliverance and redemption.

The second blessing after the Evening Shema, Hashkivenu ("Help us to lie down in peace"), seeks protection from peril and fear.

Thus, the Evening Shema is "framed" by prayers whose themes encompass the cosmic and the communal, the historical and the immediate.

Let us commit our hearts and might to accept, in love, the sovereignty of Heaven, to do that which is expected of us, to live the Covenant day and night.

“HEAR”

Let no egotism, personal or national, seal our ears to the cry for compassion or to the voice of divine command.

“O ISRAEL”

We are linked by a bond we are not free to break. We are of the covenant people whose ancestors heard God’s voice, whose prophets beheld God in visions. We have been compared to the lamb, torn by vicious wolves, and to the lion, unafraid to walk alone among the peoples.

“THE LORD OUR GOD”

In a pagan world, which treated nature as divine and adored gods with the vices of mortals, our people stood apart, witnesses to a daring faith; The God of holiness, who loves us, demands justice and mercy, and will, one day, be the God of all humanity.

“THE LORD IS ONE”

The universe, its diversity, complexity, and seeming contradictions, all derive from one source, the One Creator. People, unlike by history, race, and temperament, are yet of one family, the children of One Parent. God is our King, whose kingship is not in a far-off age. It is in us, and upon us, if we will now accept its yoke.

Nahum Waldman (adapted)

With everlasting love You have loved Your people Israel, Teaching us the Torah and its Mitzvot, Instructing us in its laws and judgments.

Therefore, O Lord our God, When we lie down and when we rise up, We shall speak of Your Commandments, And rejoice in Your Torah and Mitzvot. For they are our life and the length of our days; On them we will meditate day and night. May Your love never depart from us.

Praised are You, O Lord, Who loves Your people Israel.

The Shema

Hear, O Israel: the Lord is our God, the Lord is One.

Aloud:

Praised be God's glorious sovereignty for ever and ever.

V'AHAVTA: You shall love the Lord

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your might. You shall take to heart these words which I command you this day. You shall teach them diligently to your children, speaking of them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down at night and when you rise up in the morning. You shall bind them as a sign upon your arm, and they shall be a reminder above your eyes. You shall inscribe them on the doorposts of your homes and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

THE SHEMA: A call to witness

In the Torah scroll, the word "Sh'ma" is written with an enlarged final ayin (י); and the word "Ehad" with an enlarged final daled (ד). These two letters form the Hebrew word יָד (Eyd) which means "witness."

Whenever we recite the Sh'ma, we are responding to the Divine call: You are My witnesses, Atem Eydai (Isaiah 43:10); and we are reminded of our vocation to be God's "witnesses" — in both our personal and collective lives.

(Ben Saul)

V'AHAVTA: You shall love the Lord

Whether a person really loves God can be determined by the love which that person bears toward others.

(Levi Yitzhak of Berditchev)

In Judaism, love of God is never a mere feeling; it belongs to the sphere of ethical action.

(Leo Boeck)

KEEP THESE WORDS

If you will faithfully obey the commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God and to serve the Lord with all your heart and all your soul, then I will favor your land with rain at the proper season, in autumn and in spring; and you will harvest your grain and wine and oil. I will give grass in the fields for your cattle. You will eat and be satisfied.

Take care not to be lured away to worship other gods. For then the wrath of the Lord will be directed against you: The heavens will close and there will be no rain; the earth will not yield its produce; and you will soon perish from the good land which the Lord gave you.

Therefore, keep these words of Mine in your heart and in your soul. Bind them as a sign upon your arm, and let them be a reminder above your eyes. Teach them to your children, speaking of them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down at night and when you rise up in the morning. Write them upon the doorposts of your homes and upon your gates. Thus your days and the days of your children will be multiplied on the land which the Lord promised to your ancestors for as long as the heavens remain over the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:13-21

It is not enough to serve God in anticipation of future reward. One must do right and avoid wrong because as a human being one is obliged to seek perfection.

(Maimonides)

Rejoice so greatly in performing a Mitzvah that you will desire no other reward than the opportunity to perform another Mitzvah!

(Nehman of Bratzlav)

Rav Aha said: God has made uncertain the reward of those who perform the commandments of the Torah so that we might perform them in fidelity.

(Talmud Yerushalmi, Peah)

Do not be like servants who serve their master for the sake of receiving a reward; be rather like servants who devotedly serve their master with no thought of a reward; and may the awe of God be upon you.

(Pirkey Avot 1:3)

The reward for a good deed is another good deed; and the penalty for a transgression is another transgression.

(Pirkey Avot 4:2)

If you think of reward, you think of yourself, not God.

(Salanter)

The main purpose of the Mitzvot performed through physical action is to make us sensitive to those Mitzvot performed with the heart and mind, which are the pillars of the service of God.

(BaHya)

MAARIV LE-YOM KIPPUR

And seeing them, recall

The Children of Israel were taught by Moses
New laws, new ways,
An ethos unknown to Canaan and Babylon
And pagans of other lands.

Remember them, he said out of his mighty vision,
Always; fulfill them;

Be not led astray by temptation or evil desire.

To that end sew fringes on your garments
With thread of blue,

And seeing them, recall the laws and commandments.

Think of them as true and firm,
Ever enduring, constant, right,
Beloved, precious, fearful, mighty,
Cherished, treasured, good, and beautiful;

And as a sweet remembrance of our ancestors,
For your children,
And your children's children,
And of the Children of Israel,

That they may live to the end of days;
Sew fringes of blue on your garments;
Remember the teachings,
The visions of Moses.

Emil Weitzner

The fringes are the sign

In antiquity, slaves carried on their persons the seals of their masters. The fringes are the sign and "seal" of our submission to the will of the Holy One.

Tosafot, Menahot 43b

וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵי מֹשֶׁה לֵאמֹר: דַּבֵּר אֶל־בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל
וְאָמְרוּ אֵלֵיהֶם וַעֲשׂוּ לָהֶם צִיצֵת עַל־כַּנְּפֵי בְגָדֵיהֶם
לְדַרְתָּם וְנָתַנו עַל־צִיצֵת הַכֶּנֶף פְּתִיל תְּקָלָת: וְהָיָה
לָכֶם לְצִיצֵת וּרְאִיתֶם אֹתוֹ וְזָכַרְתֶּם אֶת־כָּל־צִוּוֹת יְהוָה
וַעֲשִׂיתֶם אֹתָם וְלֹא תִחַדּוּ אַחֲרַי לְכַבֵּבְכֶם וְאַחֲרַי עֵינֵיכֶם
אֲשֶׁר־אַתֶּם זֵנִים אַחֲרֵיהֶם: לָמַעַן תִּזְכְּרוּ וַעֲשִׂיתֶם אֹתִי
כָּל־צִוּוֹתַי וְהָיִיתֶם קְדוֹשִׁים לֵאלֹהֵיכֶם: אֲנִי יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵיכֶם
אֲשֶׁר הוֹצֵאתִי אֶתְכֶם מֵאֶרֶץ מִצְרָיִם לִהְיוֹת לָכֶם
לֵאלֹהִים אֲנִי יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵיכֶם: Reader יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵיכֶם אָמַת:

TO SEE, TO REMEMBER, AND TO OBSERVE!

The Lord said to Moses: "Speak to the Children of Israel, and bid them to make fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, putting upon the fringe of each corner a thread of blue.

"When you look upon the fringe you will be reminded of all the commandments of the Lord and obey them. You will not be led astray by the inclination of your heart or by the attraction of your eyes.

"Thus will you be reminded to fulfill all My commandments and be consecrated to your God. I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I, the Lord, am your God."

Numbers 15:37-41

EMET VE-EMUNAH: God our Redeemer

True and certain it is that there is One God;
And there is none like our Lord.

*It is God who redeemed us from the might of tyrants,
And delivered us from slavery to freedom.*

Great are the things that God has done;
The Lord's wonders are without number.

*God brought forth Israel from Egyptian bondage;
And has been our hope in every generation.*

May You continue Your protecting care over Israel,
And guard all Your children from disaster.

*When the Children of Israel beheld Your might,
They gave thanks to You and praised Your name.*

They accepted Your sovereignty willingly,
And sang in joyous thanksgiving.

Moses and the Children of Israel Proclaimed in great exultation:

“Who is like You, O Lord, among the mighty?
Who is like You, glorious in holiness,
Revered in praises, doing wonders?”

*When You rescued Israel at the Sea,
Your children beheld Your power.*

“This is my God!” they exclaimed, and said:
“The Lord shall reign for ever and ever!”

*As You delivered Israel from a mightier power,
So may You redeem all Your children from oppression.*

Praised are You, O Lord,
Redeemer of Israel.

HASHKIVENU: Help us to lie down in peace

Help us, O God, to lie down in peace,
And awaken us to life on the morrow.
May we always be guided by Your good counsel,
And thus find shelter in Your tent of peace.
Shield us, we pray, against our foes,
Against plague, destruction, and sorrow.
Strengthen us against the evil forces

May we always sense Your care,
For You are our merciful Sovereign.
Guard us always and everywhere;
Bless us with life and peace.
Praise to You, O God of peace,
Whose love is always with us,
Who shelters Your people Israel,
And protects Jerusalem in love.

VESHAMRU: Shabbat—an everlasting covenant

The Children of Israel shall observe the Sabbath, maintaining it throughout their generations as an everlasting covenant. It is a sign between Me and the Children of Israel for all time; in six days the Lord made heaven and earth; and on the seventh day the Lord ceased this work and rested.

Exodus 31:16-17

Preludes to the Amidah

ABRAHAM, ISAAC, AND JACOB

Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are not principles to be comprehended but lives to be continued. The life of the person who joins the covenant of Abraham continues the life of Abraham. For the present is not apart from the past. "Abraham is still standing before God" (Genesis 18:22); Abraham endures forever. We are Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Abraham J. Heschel

TO REMEMBER WITH REVERENCE

Let us be silent with our ancestors,
Remember with reverence their ancient prayer,
Pronounced for millennia, their words, their faith.

Gather the gleanings with thanks,
The marvelous gleanings,
Those we can share in truth to ourselves
And our sense, and our thinking.
Shine in the glow of their vision with gladness,
That we may build as their seed
Upon their soul's searching
Seeking for meaning in the mystery of life and of being,
Through justice, mercy, truth, and peace,
Through love of others, and through humility.

"Magnified and sanctified be God's great name in the world created according to the Divine will. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in our lifetime and that of the entire house of Israel. And let us say: Amen."

"O Lord, open my lips that my mouth may declare Your praise."

GOD OF ALL GENERATIONS*

Praised are You, O Lord our God and God of our ancestors,
 God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob;
 God of Sarah, God of Rebecca, God of Rachel, and God of Leah;
 Great, mighty, awesome God, supreme over all.
 You are abundantly kind, O Creator of all.
 Remembering the piety of our ancestors,
 You lovingly bring redemption to their children's children.
 Remember us for life, O Sovereign who delights in life;
 Inscribe us in the book of life, for Your sake, O God of life.
 You are our Sovereign who helps, redeems, and protects.
 Praised are You, O Lord,
 Shield of Abraham and Sustainer of Sarah.

SOURCE OF LIFE AND MASTER OF NATURE

O Lord, mighty for all eternity,
 With Your saving power You grant immortal life.
 You sustain the living with lovingkindness,
 And with great mercy You bestow eternal life upon the dead.
 You support the falling, heal the sick, and free the captives.
 You keep faith with those who sleep in the dust.
 Who is like You, almighty God?
 Who can be compared to You, Ruler over life and death,
 Source of redemption?
 Who is like You, compassionate God?
 Mercifully You remember Your creatures for life.
 You are faithful in granting eternal life to the departed.
 Praised are You, O Lord, who grants immortality to the departed.

וּנְאֻמָּן אַתָּה לְהַחְיִית מְתִים. בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי מְתִיה הַמְתִים:

For the Hebrew text of the "Interpretive Amidah Blessings," see page 890.

O GOD, IN YOUR HOLINESS, ESTABLISH YOUR REIGN!

Holy are You and hallowed is Your name, and holy ones praise You daily.

Lord our God, imbue all Your creatures with reverence for You, and fill all that You have created with awe of You. May they all bow before You and unite in one fellowship to do Your will wholeheartedly. May they all acknowledge, as we do, that sovereignty is Yours, that Yours is the power and the majesty, and that You reign supreme over all You have created.

Grant honor, O Lord, to Your people, glory to those who revere You, hope to those who seek You, and confidence to those who trust in You. Grant joy to Your land and gladness to Your holy city, speedily in our own days.

Then the righteous will see and be glad, the upright will exult, and the pious will rejoice in song. Wickedness will be silenced, and all evil will vanish like smoke when You remove the dominion of tyranny from the earth.

Then You alone, O Lord, will rule over all Your works, from Mount Zion, the dwelling place of Your presence, from Jerusalem, Your holy city. Thus it is written in the Psalms: "The Lord shall reign forever; your God, Zion, through all generations; Hallelujah!"

You are holy, Your name is awe-inspiring, and there is no God but You. Thus the prophet wrote: "The Lord of hosts is exalted by justice, and the holy God is sanctified through righteousness." Praised are You, O Lord, the holy Sovereign.

And in the Torah it is written: "For on this day atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you; of all your sins shall you be clean before the Lord."

Our God and God of our ancestors [may our Sabbath rest be acceptable to You;] may Your Mitzvot lead us to holiness; and may we be among those who devote themselves to Your Torah. May we find contentment in Your blessings, and joy in Your sustaining power.

[Help us to enjoy, in love and favor, the heritage of Your holy Sabbath. May Your people Israel, who hallow Your name, find rest on this day.]

Purify our hearts to serve You in truth. For You forgive the people Israel and pardon the tribes of Jeshurun in every generation; and we acknowledge only You as Sovereign who grants us pardon and forgiveness.

Praised are You, O Lord, who forgives and pardons our sins and the sins of the house of Israel. Year after year, You absolve us of our guilt, Sovereign over all the earth, who hallows [the Sabbath,] Israel, and this Day of Atonement.

ACCEPT OUR PRAYER AND BLESS ZION

Be gracious to Your people Israel, O Lord our God, and lovingly accept their prayers. May our worship ever be acceptable to You.

May our eyes behold Your merciful return to Zion. Praise to You, O Lord, who restores the Divine Presence to Zion.

THANKSGIVING FOR DAILY MIRACLES

We thankfully acknowledge You, our God and God of our ancestors, Lord of eternity. You are the source of our strength, even as You have been Israel's protecting shield in every generation. We thank You and proclaim Your praise for our lives which are in Your hand, for our souls which are in Your care, for Your miracles which are daily with us, and for Your wondrous kindness at all times—morning, noon, and night. Source of all goodness, Your mercies never fail. Source of compassion, Your kindnesses never cease. You are our abiding hope.

For all Your blessings we shall praise and exalt You, O our Sovereign, forever.

Inscribe all the children of Your covenant for a good life.

May all living creatures always thank You and praise You in truth. O God, You are our deliverance and our help. Praised are You, beneficent Lord, to whom all praise is due.

BLESS US WITH PEACE

*Grant lasting peace to Your people Israel, for You are the sovereign Lord of peace. May it please You to bless Your people Israel, in every season and at every hour, with Your peace.

INSCRIBE US IN THE BOOK OF LIFE

In the book of life and blessing, peace and prosperity, may we and all Your people, the house of Israel, be inscribed for a good and peaceful life. Praised are You, O Lord, Source of peace.

In the Morning Service, substitute the following paragraph:*

Grant peace, goodness, and blessing to the world; graciousness, kindness, and mercy to us and to all Your people Israel. Bless us, O Divine Parent of us all, with the light of Your sacred presence. For by that divine light You have revealed to us Your life-giving Torah, and taught us lovingkindness, righteousness, mercy, and peace. May it please You to bless Your people Israel, in every season and at every hour, with Your peace. In the book of life and blessing, peace and prosperity, may we and all Your people, the house of Israel, be inscribed for a good and peaceful life. Praised are You, O Lord, Source of peace.

THE CONFSSIONAL

Our God and God of our ancestors, may our prayers come before You and may You not ignore our pleas. We are neither so arrogant nor so stubborn as to declare that we are righteous and have not sinned; for, indeed, we have sinned.

ASHAMNU: We have trespassed

We have trespassed; we have dealt treacherously;
we have robbed; we have spoken slander;
we have acted perversely; we have done wrong;
we have acted presumptuously; we have done violence;
we have practiced deceit; we have counseled evil;
we have spoken falsehood; we have scoffed;
we have revolted; we have blasphemed;
we have rebelled; we have committed iniquity;
we have transgressed; we have oppressed;
we have been stiff-necked; we have acted wickedly;
we have dealt corruptly; we have committed abomination;
we have gone astray; we have led others astray.

We have turned away from Your Mitzvot and Your goodly laws, and we are poorer for our disobedience. You are just in all that has come upon us. You have been faithful; yet, we have done evil.

What can we say to You, exalted God? What can we tell You, Lord of the universe? For You know everything, the hidden and the open.

You know the mysteries of the universe as well as the secrets of every mortal. You search the deepest recesses of the human soul, and probe all our thoughts and motives. Nothing escapes You, nothing is concealed from You.

Therefore, may it be Your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to forgive all our sins, to pardon all our iniquities, and to grant us atonement for all our transgressions.

AL HET: The multitude of our sins

We have sinned against you willingly and unwillingly;
And we have sinned against You by hardening our hearts.

We have sinned against You by acting without thinking;
And we have sinned against You by speaking perversely.

We have sinned against You through sexual immorality;
And we have sinned against You publicly and privately.

We have sinned against You knowingly and deceitfully;
And we have sinned against You by corrupt speech.

We have sinned against You by wronging others;
And we have sinned against You by evil thoughts.

We have sinned against You by licentiousness;
And we have sinned against You by insincere confession.

We have sinned against You by disrespecting parents and teachers;

And we have sinned against You intentionally and unintentionally.

We have sinned against You by violence;
And we have sinned against You by desecrating Your name.

We have sinned against You by foul speech;
And we have sinned against You by foolish talk.

We have sinned against You through the inclination to evil;
And we have sinned against You knowingly and unknowingly.

*For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.*

We have sinned against You by swearing falsely;
And we have sinned against You by causeless hatred.
We have sinned against You by breach of trust;
And we have sinned against You by confusion of values.

*For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.*

Forgive us for the breach of positive commandments and negative commandments, whether done actively or passively, whether known to us or unknown to us.

The sins known to us we have already confessed; and those unknown to us are certainly known to You, as it is written in the Torah:

"The secret things belong to the Lord our God; but the things that are known belong to us and to our children forever, that we may fulfill all the words of this Torah."

For You forgive the people Israel and pardon the tribes of Jeshurun in every generation; and we acknowledge only You as our Sovereign, who grants us pardon and forgiveness.

GUARD MY TONGUE FROM EVIL

O Lord, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking falsehood. Help me to ignore those who slander me, and to be humble and forgiving to all. Open my heart to Your Torah, that I may know Your teachings and eagerly do Your will. Frustrate the plans of those who wish me ill, that I may praise Your power, Your holiness, and Your law. Save Your loved ones, O Lord; answer us with Your redeeming power. "May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart find favor before You, my Rock and my Redeemer." O Maker of harmony in the universe, grant peace to us, to Israel, and to all people everywhere. Amen.

The heavens and the earth, and all within them, were finished. By the seventh day God had completed the work of Creation; and so God rested from all this work. Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it because on it God ceased all the Divine work of Creation.

MAGEYN AVOT: Our shield in all generations (Adapted from the Hebrew)

Praised are You, O Lord our God and God of our ancestors, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob; God of Sarah, God of Rebecca, God of Rachel, and God of Leah; Great, mighty, revered, and supreme, Lord of heaven and earth.

God's word was a shield to our ancestors; and it confers immortal life. God alone is the holy Sovereign, who gives rest to our people on the holy Sabbath, taking delight in them. Let us serve the Lord in reverence and awe, and offer thanks every day. For God is the source of our blessings, the One to whom all thanks are due. The Lord of peace sanctifies the Sabbath and blesses the seventh day, giving our people the joy of Sabbath rest, as a commemoration of Creation.

MEKADEYSH HA-SHABBAT: Holiness and joy

Our God and God of our ancestors, may our Sabbath rest be acceptable to You. May Your Mitzvot lead us to holiness, and may we be among those who devote themselves to Your Torah. May we find contentment in Your blessings, and joy in Your sustaining power.

Purify our hearts to serve You in truth, and help us to enjoy, in love and favor, the heritage of Your holy Sabbath. May Your people Israel, who sanctify Your name, rest on this day. Praised are You, O Lord, who sanctifies the Sabbath.

An invitation to God

 The focus of prayer is not the self. Prayer comes to pass in a complete turning of the heart toward God, toward God's goodness and power. It is the momentary disregard of our personal concerns, the absence of self-centered thoughts, which constitute the art of prayer. Feeling becomes prayer in the moment in which we forget ourselves and become aware of God. . . .

Prayer is an invitation to God to intervene in our lives, to let the Divine Will prevail in our affairs; it is the opening of a window to God in our will, an effort to make God the Lord of our soul.

Abraham J. Heschel (adapted)

As we call upon Your name

 On this night of Atonement, grant us, O God,
A sense of Your presence, as we call upon Your name.
Speak Your hopeful message to each yearning heart;
And answer the worthy petitions of each searching soul.
Purify and strengthen our noble strivings;
And cleanse us of all our unworthy desires.
Join us together in fellowship and in love;
And grant us the joy which comes from enriching other lives.
Help us to be loyal to the heritage we share;
Draw us near to Torah in wisdom and in faith.
Strengthen our devotion to our people everywhere;
Keep alive our faith in righteousness and truth.
Bless us with hopes to uplift our daily lives;
And keep steadfast our courage and our resolve at all times.
On this night of Atonement, help us, O God,
To be worthy of Your presence, as we call upon Your name.

Prayer: The service of the heart

 Our Sages taught: "Prayer is the service of the heart."
For the Jew, "to pray" means more than to request.

It means to seek God's help—

"To keep our tongue from evil,"

"To purify our heart,"

"To fulfill in love the words of the Torah."

To pray means to teach ourselves to be grateful
For the miracles which God bestows upon us daily:
Love and fellowship, health and understanding.

It means to pledge ourselves anew to those ideals
With which we can build a decent world.

To pray means to meditate upon those moments in ages past

When God became real in people's lives,

When God's spirit moved them and guided their actions—

And to permit those moments to give us, today,

The courage to work for justice, peace, and freedom.

To pray means to sense the reality of God in our own lives,
In our acts, and in our thoughts;

To feel the purity and the exaltation

Which come from being near God;

And to gain for our souls that peace

Which neither worldly wealth nor worldly failure,

Neither love of life nor fear of death can shatter.

YAALEH: May our prayers be accepted

May our supplication rise at nightfall,
Our plea approach Your presence in the morning,
And our exultation come at dusk.

May our voices rise in prayer at nightfall,
Our cause ascend to You in the morning,
And redemption come to us at dusk.

May our penitence rise to You at nightfall,
Our pardon come before You in the morning,
And our cry be heard by You at dusk.

May our trust in You rise up at nightfall,
Our hope be granted for Your sake in the morning,
And our atonement come at dusk.

May our deliverance mount at nightfall,
Our cleansing come to us in the morning,
And Your favor come to us at dusk.

May our remembrance rise to You at nightfall,
Our assemblage be acceptable to You in the morning,
And Your glory shine upon us at dusk.

May our knocking at Your gates be heard at nightfall,
Our joy come to us in the morning,
And our petition be granted at dusk.

May our cry rise up to You at nightfall,
Our plea reach Your presence in the morning,
And Your mercy be shown to us at dusk.

IN REVERENCE AND THANKSGIVING

O God who hears prayer,
To You shall all creatures come.
They shall come and worship before You,
And render homage to Your name.
Come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us bend the knee before the Lord, our Maker.

Come, let us sing to the Lord;
Let us acclaim the Rock of our deliverance.

Let us draw near to the Lord with thankfulness;
Let us acclaim the Lord with songs of praise.

Righteousness and justice sustain God's throne;
Love and truth attend God always.

The sea is God's, who made it,
Whose hands formed the dry land.

In God's hand is the life of every creature,
The spirit of every human being.

Biblical verses

SHOW COMPASSION, O LORD, TO YOUR HANDIWORK.

The soul is Yours, the body is Your creation;
Have compassion on Your handiwork.

The soul is Yours, the body is Yours;
Forgive us Lord, for the sake of Your name.

We have come trusting in You,
Lord, deal kindly for Your name's sake.

Gracious and compassionate God,
Forgive us, for numerous are our sins.

Who shapes or melts it at will,
So are we in Your hand, O gracious God;

Recall Your covenant, forgive our sin.

As cloth in the hand of the draper,
Who drapes or twists it at will,
So are we in Your hand, O righteous God;

Recall Your covenant, forgive our sin.

Who alloys or refines it at will,
So are we in Your hand, O healing God;

Recall Your covenant, forgive our sin.

Prelude to the "Thirteen Attributes"

Who has ever lived who did not sin?
Is there any mortal untainted by iniquity?

*No one is free of all transgression;
All, therefore, stand in need of God's forgiveness.*

Our ancestors sinned at the very foot of Sinai,
Where the command of God had just been proclaimed.

*Though they had pledged "we will do, we will obey,"
They soon broke their promise of loyalty to God.*

Faithlessly, they broke the commandments of the Lord;
They fashioned and worshiped a calf of gold.

*How wondrous then, was God's compassion;
For God did not destroy the rebellious people.*

Subduing the Divine wrath, God forgave our ancestors,
Revealing the thirteen aspects of Divine mercy.

Now we, O Lord, come before You in contrition, Recalling those same attributes of Your compassion.

As You had mercy upon our ancestors,
Have mercy also upon us, we pray;
For we, O God, have also sinned.

*We, too, forsake and break our pledge;
We, too, worship the work of our own hands;
We, too, make of gold a god;
We, too, cast off the Torah's yoke.*

Show compassion, O Lord; forgive our sins;
For we, like our ancestors, need Your pardon.

Hershel J. Matt (adapted)

We are clay

"We are clay.
You are the potter
Who shapes us at Your will."
Mold us into worthy vessels
Even though we're only clay.
Do not smash us if we prove imperfect,
Remember we are only clay.

"We are glass.
You are the artisan
Who can form us into many shapes."
Form us into finest crystal—
Even if You have to twist and turn us.
But do not smash us if we are not pure,
Remember we are only glass.

"We are silver.
You are the smith
Who molds us as You wish."
Hammer us as You design
Even though we are not gold.
Do not smash us if we tarnish,
Remember we are only silver.

"We are the rudder.
You are the helmsman
Who steers us to the left or to the right."
Direct us to the shore You choose.
Do not let us idly spin
Even if we consistently resist Your grasp,
Remember that the waves are very strong.

"We are threads.
You are the weaver
Who creates the patterns that You like."
Weave us, God, into Your plan.
Make us supple, straight, and true.
And do not discard us
If we should be imperfect.
Remember we are only threads.

THE THRONE OF MERCY

O God our Sovereign, enthroned in mercy,
You rule with lovingkindness.

You pardon Your people's transgressions,
Forgiving them again and again.

You are generous in forgiveness to sinners;
You deal mercifully with all creatures.
Not according to the evil of their deeds.

Lord, You taught us through the humble one, Moses,
To recite Your thirteen attributes of mercy.

Remember, as You judge us,

The covenant of mercy which You then revealed.

Thus is it written in Your Torah:

“The Lord descended in a cloud,

And Moses was with the Lord there,

And proclaimed the name of the Lord.”

THE COVENANT OF MERCY: The Thirteen Attributes

“Then the Lord passed before Moses and proclaimed:

“The Lord is ever-present, all-merciful, gracious, compassionate, patient, abounding in kindness and faithfulness, treasuring up love for a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin, and pardoning the penitent.”

“Pardon our iniquity and our sin; take us to be Your own.”

Forgive us, our Lord, for we have sinned;

Pardon us, our Sovereign, for we have transgressed.

For You, O Lord, generously forgive;

Great is Your love for all who call upon You.

REMEMBER US, RECALL THE COVENANT, AND PURIFY US

O Lord, remember Your mercy and Your kindness,
For they are everlasting.

Remember us, O Lord, and show us Your favor;
Remember us and deliver us.

Remember the people You redeemed from bondage,
And Mount Zion, the site of Your presence.

Remember, O Lord, Your love of Jerusalem;
Forget not Your love for Zion.

Remember, O Lord, Your Covenant with our forebears:

"I will remember My Covenant with Jacob, Isaac, and Abraham, and I will remember the land."

Remember, O Lord, Your Covenant with our ancestors:

"I will remember My Covenant with your ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt, in the sight of all the nations, to be their God; I am the Lord."

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, and do not destroy us:

"The Lord is a merciful God who will not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor ever forget the Covenant."

Open our hearts that we may love and revere You:

"The Lord your God will open your heart and the heart of your children, so that you will love God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live."

Gather our dispersed and our homeless, as was promised:

"Even if you are dispersed in the remotest parts of the world, from there the Lord your God will gather and fetch you."

Be with us, O Lord, when we seek You:

"If you seek the Lord your God, you shall find God—if you seek with all your heart and all your soul."

Forgive our sins on this day, O Lord, and purify us:

"On this day atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you; of all your sins shall you be clean before the Lord."

SHEMA KOLEYNU: Hear our voice

Hear our voice, Lord our God; spare us, pity us,
Accept our prayer in Your gracious love.

Turn us to You, O Lord, and we shall return;
Renew us as in days of old.

Do not banish us from Your presence;
Do not deprive us of Your holy spirit.

Do not cast us off in old age;
When our strength declines, do not forsake us.

Do not forsake us, O Lord our God;
Do not make Yourself distant from us.

DO NOT FORSAKE US: Teach, purify, and forgive us

Our God and God of our ancestors,

Do not abandon or forsake us;

Do not shame us;

Do not break Your covenant with us.

Bring us closer to Your Torah;

Teach us Your commandments; show us Your ways.

Incline our hearts to revere You;

Purify our hearts to love You,

So that we return to You sincerely and wholeheartedly.

Forgive and pardon our iniquities,

As it is written in Your Holy Scriptures:

“For Your own sake, O Lord,
Pardon my sin though it is great.”

KI ANU AMEHA: We are Your people, and You are our God
Our God and God of our ancestors,
Forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

For we are Your people, and You are our God.

We are Your children, and You are our Parent.

We are Your servants, and You are our Master.

We are Your congregation, and You are our Heritage.

We are Your possession, and You are our Destiny.

We are Your flock, and You are our Shepherd.

We are Your vineyard, and You are our Guardian.

We are Your creatures, and You are our Creator.

We are Your faithful, and You are our Beloved.

We are Your treasure, and You are our Protector.

We are Your subjects, and You are our Ruler.

We are Your chosen ones, and You are our Chosen One.

We are arrogant; but You are merciful.

We are obstinate; but You are patient.

We are laden with sin; but You abound in compassion.

We are as a passing shadow; but You are eternal.

THE EXISTENCE OF GOD

God exists; but unless we acknowledge this, and unless our belief in God's existence has some influence on our life and character, then for us God does not exist. . . . God exists when we recognize God's sovereignty! The Sages of the Midrash had their own way of teaching this idea that, in a sense, God depends on us just as we depend on God: "You are My witnesses, says the Lord, and I am God" (Isaiah 43:12). When you are My witnesses, I am God; but when you are not My witnesses, I am, as it were, not God."

THE CONFSSIONAL

Our God and God of our ancestors, may our prayers come before You and may You not ignore our pleas. We are neither so arrogant nor so stubborn as to declare that we are righteous and have not sinned; for, indeed, we have sinned.

ASHAMNU: We have trespassed

We have trespassed; we have dealt treacherously;
we have robbed; we have spoken slander;
we have acted perversely; we have done wrong;
we have acted presumptuously; we have done violence;
we have practiced deceit; we have counseled evil;
we have spoken falsehood; we have scoffed;
we have revolted; we have blasphemed;
we have rebelled; we have committed iniquity;
we have transgressed; we have oppressed;
we have been stiff-necked; we have acted wickedly;
we have dealt corruptly; we have committed abomination;
we have gone astray; we have led others astray.

We have turned away from Your Mitzvot and Your goodly laws, and we are poorer for our disobedience. You are just in all that has come upon us. You have been faithful; yet, we have done evil.

THE GREAT TRANSGRESSION

The great transgression is not that we commit sins—for temptation is strong and our power is slight. Rather the great transgression is that at every instant we could turn to God in repentance—and yet we do not do so!

Rabbi Simhah Bunam

FORGIVE OUR SINS

On Shabbat add the words in brackets.

Our God and God of our ancestors, forgive and pardon our sins [on this Sabbath day and] on this Day of Atonement.

Answer our prayers; blot out and remove our transgressions from Your sight. Direct our impulses that we may serve You, and humble our pride that we may return to You.

Renew our inner being so that we may observe Your commandments, and open our hearts so that we may love and revere You; as it is written in Your Torah: "The Lord your God will open your heart and the heart of your children, so that you will love the Lord with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live."

What can we say to You, exalted God?

What can we tell You, Lord of the universe?

For You know everything, the hidden and the open.

YOU KNOW OUR DEEPEST THOUGHTS

You know the mysteries of the universe
as well as the secrets of every mortal.

You search the deepest recesses of the human soul,
and probe all our thoughts and motives.

Nothing escapes You, nothing is concealed from You.

Therefore, may it be Your will, Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to forgive all our sins, to pardon all our iniquities, and to grant us atonement for all our transgressions.

On Shabbat add the words in brackets.

אלהינו ואלהי אבותינו. סלח ומחל לעונותינו ביום השבת הזה וביום הכפורים הזה. והעתר-לנו בתפלתנו.

מחה והעבר פשעינו מנגד עיניך. וכוף את-יָרְגוֹנוּ להשתעבד-לך. והכנע ערפנו לשוב אליך. וחדש כל-יְהִינּוּ לשמור פקודיך. ומול את-לִבְנוּ לאהבה וליראה את-שִׁמְךָ ברחוב בתורתך. ומל "אלהיך את-לִבְּךָ ואת-לִבְּךָ ורַעַךְ לאהבה אחי"י אלהיך בכל-לִבְּךָ ובכל-נַפְשְׁךָ למען חייך:

AL HET: The multitude of our sins

We have sinned against You by hardening our hearts;
And we have sinned against You by speaking perversely.
We have sinned against You publicly and privately;
And we have sinned against You by corrupt speech.
We have sinned against You by evil thoughts;
And we have sinned against You by insincere confession.
We have sinned against You intentionally and unintentionally;
And we have sinned against You by desecrating Your name.
For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

V'al kulam Elo-ha s'lihot, s'lah lanu, m'hal lanu, ka-per lanu.

We have sinned against You by foolish talk;
And we have sinned against You knowingly and unknowingly.
We have sinned against You by bribery;
And we have sinned against You by slander.
We have sinned against You in eating and drinking;
And we have sinned against You by false pride.
For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

V'al kulam Elo-ha s'lihot, s'lah lanu, m'hal lanu, ka-per lanu.

We have sinned against You by wanton glances;
And we have sinned against You by effrontery.
We have sinned against You by perverting justice;
And we have sinned against You by envy.
We have sinned against You by being stubborn;
And we have sinned against You by talebearing.
We have sinned against You by causeless hatred;
And we have sinned against You by confusion of values.
For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

V'al kulam Elo-ha s'lihot, s'lah lanu, m'hal lanu, ka-per lanu.

Repentance: God is our ally

Our physical characteristics may be determined by heredity, but our human stature, we fashion for ourselves.

Our environment determines the language we speak; but it is we who determine whether our words are cruel or gentle, cutting or comforting.

Passions, appetites, and instincts are part of our animal equipment; but whether they rule us or we rule them, we ourselves determine.

We are neither robots nor puppets; we are human beings, capable of choosing between right and wrong, and morally responsible for our deeds.

Because we are free to choose, we are capable of change. We can give new direction to our lives.

This is the liberating glory of T'shuvah! We can throw off the tyranny of debasing habits. We can conquer the greed which gnaws at us, the selfishness which shrinks us, the prejudice which enslaves us, the indifference which dehumanizes us.

We can reach great moral heights if we so choose—if we will it with all our hearts, with all our souls, and with all our might.

In this struggle for repentance, we are not alone. God is our ally. God, who calls us to T'shuvah, has given us the power to repent.

God helps us in our effort to refine our characters, to reshape our goals, to redirect our lives.

This is the meaning of Yom Kippur: responsibility for yesterday, opportunity for tomorrow, and choices to be made today!

A new Al Het

For the sin of the hardened heart,

And for the sin of the talebearing lips;

For the sin of the lustful look,

And for the sin of the pious mask;

For the sin of enjoying violence,

And for the sin of polluting Your earth;

For the sin of debasing our speech,

And for the sin of degrading Your name;

For the sin of the yes that was no,

And for the sin of the promise unkept;

For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

V'al kulam Elo-ha s'libot, s'lah lanu, m'hal lanu, ka-per lanu.

For the sin of the covetous eye,

And for the sin of the haughty head;

For the sin of the insensitive soul,

And for the sin of the mocking voice;

For the sin of the clenched fist,

And for the sin of the deceitful smile;

For the sin of eating too much,

And for the sin of drinking too hard;

For the sin of not hearing the oppressed,

And for the sin of closing our eyes;

For all these sins, O God of forgiveness,
forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement.

V'al kulam Elo-ha s'libot, s'lah lanu, m'hal lanu, ka-per lanu.

AS GOD ANSWERED IN AGES PAST . . .

As God answered Abraham, our father, on Mount Moriah,
And his son, Isaac, when bound upon the altar,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Jacob in Beth El,

And Joseph unjustly imprisoned in Egypt,

So may God answer us!

As God answered our ancestors at the Sea,

And Moses in the wilderness of Horeb,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Aaron bearing an offering,

And Phinehas when he fought for the right,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Joshua in Gilgal,

And Samuel in Mizpah,

So may God answer us!

As God answered David and Solomon in Jerusalem,

Elijah on Mount Carmel, and Elisha in Jericho,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Jonah inside the fish,

And Hezekiah in his illness,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah,

Thrown into the fiery furnace,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Daniel in the lions' den,

And Mordecai and Esther in Shushan,

So may God answer us!

As God answered Ezra in exile,

And all the righteous, the faithful, and the upright,

So may God answer us!

- Avinu Malkeynu, accept our prayer with mercy and favor.
- Avinu Malkeynu, have pity on us and on our children.
- Avinu Malkeynu, act for those who went through fire and water for the sanctification of Your name.
- Avinu Malkeynu, act for Your sake if not for ours.
- Avinu Malkeynu, graciously answer us, although we are without merits;
- Deal with us charitably and lovingly save us.

The righteous live their faith

Pledging allegiance to God and to God's Law cannot suffice; professing unswerving faith in the truth and the right is not enough.

We must live our allegiance, and weave our faith into the pattern of all for which we strive.

Justice and love dare not remain mere iridescent dreams for the spirit to indulge in on Sabbaths and solemn days.

The Kingdom of God cannot be defended by those of mere passive faith, by those who are persuaded that God causes righteousness to triumph, regardless of what we do.

Only that faith which impels us to live in mutual helpfulness can enable us to overcome the deadly enemies of God and humanity.

God is a Lord of hosts. To be numbered among those hosts we must engage in unyielding struggle to make this world safe for all who want to be free and just and kind;

For only thus will the ancient vision be fulfilled:
"The impious, their power shall fail them,
If they who profess righteousness will live by their faith."

Mordecai M. Kaplan

Avinu Malkeynu, give us honesty and strength

Avinu Malkeynu, give us the honesty to call a sin a sin.
Avinu Malkeynu, help us to renounce the idols we worship.

Avinu Malkeynu, give us the strength to seek forgiveness.
Avinu Malkeynu, give us the understanding to grant forgiveness.

Avinu Malkeynu, keep us from being our own worst enemies.

Avinu Malkeynu, liberate us from the chains we forge for ourselves.

Avinu Malkeynu, keep us from surrendering our hopes.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us to use our strength to do Your work.

Avinu Malkeynu, free us from needless worry and useless anxiety.

Avinu Malkeynu, keep us mindful of the needs of all Your children.

Avinu Malkeynu, teach us to cherish the good we have abandoned.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us to abandon the evil we cherish.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us to love You with all our hearts.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us to seek You with all our souls.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us to serve You with all our might.

Avinu Malkeynu, help us in our quest for truth and beauty.

Avinu Malkeynu, teach us the joy of studying Torah.

Avinu Malkeynu, give us the strength to walk in its ways.

Avinu Malkeynu, show us the way to harmony and reconciliation.

Avinu Malkeynu, may our words and deeds proclaim That You are, truly, our Parent and Sovereign.

Alenu

Let us now praise the Lord of all;
Let us acclaim the Author of Creation,
Who made us unlike the pagans who surrounded us,
Unlike the heathens of the ancient world,
Who made our heritage different from theirs,
And assigned to us a unique destiny.
We bend the knee and reverently bow
Before the supreme Sovereign,
The Holy One, who is to be praised,
Who spread forth the heavens and established the earth,
And whose glorious presence can be found everywhere.
The Lord is our God; there is no other.
Truly, our sovereign Lord is incomparable.
As it is written in the Torah:
"This day accept, with mind and heart,
That God is the Lord of heaven and earth;
There is no other."

Among the themes which find majestic expression in the Alenu are thanking for the unique religious heritage of the Jewish People, and confident hope for a world transformed, under the sovereignty of our Creator. When the realities of the world (or of our lives) discourage or distress us, the Alenu reminds us of our Vocation, calls upon us to reaffirm our Faith, and redirects our troubled thoughts toward a future of renewed hope.

(Reflections on Alenu, Ben Saul)

כִּי יִי הוּא הָאֱלֹהִים בְּשָׂמַיִם מְפַעֵל וְעַל-הָאֲרֶץ מְתַחַת. אֵין עוֹד:

In the Alenu, we reverently acclaim God as Creator of the universe; we affirm the distinctive character of our People and our Faith; and we pray, with hope, for the salvation of all God's children, looking beyond the idolatries which still abound.

Alenu is thus a quintessential Jewish prayer; for here the voices of the "universal" and the "particular" are joined, in a chorus of faith and hope.

Aleynu l'sha-bey-ah la-adon ha-kol,

WE HOPE FOR THE DAY

Because we believe in You, O God,
We hope for the day when Your majesty will prevail,
When all false gods will be removed,
And all idolatry will be abolished;
When the world will be made a "Kingdom of God,"
When all humanity will invoke Your name,
And the wicked will be turned to You.
May all who live be convinced
That to You every knee must bend,
Every tongue must vow loyalty.
Before You may all bow in reverence,
Proclaiming Your glory, accepting Your sovereignty.
May Your reign come soon and last forever;
For sovereignty is Yours alone, now and evermore.
So is it written in Your Torah:
"The Lord shall reign for ever and ever."
The prophet too, proclaimed this promise:
"The Lord shall be Sovereign over all the earth;
That day the Lord shall be One and God's name One."

A HERITAGE OF MEMORIES

May the memories which we cherish
And lovingly now recall
Inspire us so to live
That we too may bequeath
A heritage of precious memories
To those whom we shall leave behind.
In tribute to our departed
May we enrich the lives we touch.
May we share and preserve the faith
Which our mourners will now affirm,
As they rise to sanctify God's name
In the hallowed words of the Kaddish.

A meditation before the Kaddish

Eternal God, who remembers our deeds and our lives, we turn to You for solace and hope when we are bowed in grief.

As we recall with affection those who have been taken from our midst, we thank You for our years of love and companionship with them, and for the memories and the undying inspiration which they have left behind.

In solemn testimony to the unbroken faith which links the generations of the house of Israel, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your name.

PSALMS FOR THE PENITENTIAL SEASON

TRUST IN THE LORD—Psalm 27 (selected from the Hebrew)

The Lord is my light and my help; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life; whom shall I dread?
Should an army be arrayed against me, I would not fear.
Should war beset me, still would I be confident.
One thing I ask of the Lord, for this do I yearn:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all my life,
To feel the goodness of the Lord in the Lord's sanctuary.
On the day of trouble God will shield me,
Lifting me to safety; my head will be high above my foes.
In God's Tabernacle I will bring offerings of jubilation,
With chanting and joyous singing.
O Lord, hear my voice when I call;
Be gracious to me and answer me.
O Lord, I truly seek You. Do not hide Yourself from me;
Turn not in anger from Your servant.
You have always been my help;
Do not forsake me, O God, my Deliverer.
Teach me Your way, O Lord; lead me on a straight path.
Deliver me not to the will of my enemies.
Trust in the Lord and be strong;
Take courage and hope in the Lord.

Alternate Penitential Psalm—Psalm 130

Out of the depths I call to You, O Lord.
Hear my cry, O Lord; be attentive to my plea.
If You kept account of all sins,
O Lord, who could survive?
But with You there is forgiveness;
Therefore we revere You.
With all my being I wait for the Lord,
Whose word I await with hope.
My soul yearns for the Lord
More anxiously than watchmen yearn for the dawn.
O Israel, put your hope in the Lord,
For the Lord is abundantly kind.
Great is the saving power of the Lord,
Who will redeem our people from all their iniquities.

מְבִישׁ לְסוֹף דְּבָר בְּקִדְמָתוֹ:
גּוֹמֵל לְאִישׁ חֶסֶד כְּמַפְעֵלוֹ
נּוֹתֵן לְרֹשַׁע רַע כְּרִשְׁעָתוֹ:

יִשְׁלַח לְקַץ יָמָיו מְשִׁיחָנוּ
לְפָדוֹת מְחַבֵּי קֶץ יִשְׁוֹעָתוֹ:
מֵחַיִּים יַחֲיֶה אֵל כְּרַב חֶסְדוֹ
כְּרוּךְ עֲדֵי עַד שֵׁם תְּהִלָּתוֹ:

Yigdal, a poetic summary of the thirteen principles of faith as formulated by Moses Maimonides in his Commentary on the Mishnah (Sanhedrin 10:1), is believed to have been written by Daniel ben Juddah, a fourteenth-century Italian poet.

ADON OLAM

The Eternal Lord reigned alone
While yet the universe was naught;
When by Divine Will all things were wrought,
God's sovereign name was first known.

And when this all shall cease to be,
In dread splendor shall God yet reign;
God was, God is, God shall remain
In glorious eternity.

For God is one, no other shares
God's nature or uniqueness;
Unending and beginningless,
All strength is God's; all sway God bears.

Acclaim the living God to save,
My Rock while sorrow's toils endure,
My banner and my stronghold sure,
The cup of life whene'er I crave.

I place my soul within God's palm
Before I sleep as when I wake,
And though my body I forsake,
Rest in the Lord in fearless calm.

Israel Zangwill (adapted by Adina N. Samuelson)

בְּתָרָם כָּל יְצִיר נִבְרָא:

אֲדוֹן עוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר מֶלֶךְ
לְעֵת נִעְשָׂה בְּחֻפְצוֹ כֹּל

אֲזִי מֶלֶךְ שְׁמוֹ נִקְרָא:

וְאַחֲרֵי כִּכְלוֹת הַכֹּל

לְבָדוֹ וּמְלוֹךְ נִדְרָא:

וְהוּא הֵיךָ וְהוּא הֵיךָ

וְהוּא אֶחָד וְאֵין שְׁנַי

וְהוּא אֶחָד וְאֵין שְׁנַי

לְהַמְשִׁיל לוֹ לְהַחֲבִירָה:

כָּל רֵאשִׁית כָּל תְּכֵלִית

וְצוּר תְּכֵלִי כְּעַת צְרָה:

וְהוּא אֶלִי וְחֵי גּוֹאֲלִי

מִנְת כּוֹסֵי בַּיּוֹם אֶקְרָא:

וְהוּא נְסִי וּמְנוֹס לִי

כְּעַת אִישׁן וְאֶעֱרָה:

כִּידוֹ אֶפְקִיד רִוְחִי

יְי לִי וְלֹא אֵירָא:

וְעַם רוּחִי וְנִוְתִי

Adon olam asher malah, b'terem kol y'tzir niv-ra.
L'eyt na-asa v'heftzo kol, azai meleh sh'mo nikra.

V'aharey kih-lot ha-kol, l'vado yim-loh nora.

V'hu ha-ya v'hu ho-veh, v'hu yi-h'yeh b'tif-ara.

V'hu ehad v'eyn shey-ni, l'ham-shil lo l'haḥ-bira.

B'li reyshit b'li taḥlit, v'lo ha-oz v'ha-misra.

A Yom Kippur prayer

On this night of atonement, we pray,
Sustain us and strengthen us.

Keep us mindful of the meaning of the prayers we utter;
Make us sensitive to the purposes of the fast we have begun.

Keep us hungry for truth,
And give us the will to seek it.

Keep us hungry for justice,
And give us the courage to pursue it.

Keep us hungry for peace,
And give us the strength to work for it.

Keep us hungry for righteousness,
And give us the determination to live it.

Keep us hungry for love,
And give us the understanding to earn it.

Keep us hungry for reconciliation,
And give us the wisdom to obtain it.

Keep us hungry for Your forgiveness,
And give us the humility to ask for it.

On this night of atonement, O God,
Sustain us and strengthen us.

Draw us closer

Eternal God, in whose name we have gathered, lift our thoughts that we may renew our minds; and lead us beside the still waters so that we may restore our souls.

We thank You, O Lord, for our hallowed memories and for our abiding hopes.

Help us to show that we are Your children by giving ourselves faithfully to Your tasks.

Help us to convert our convictions into conduct and our commitments into deeds.

Help us to narrow the gap between our principles and our practices, between our aspirations and our actions.

Keep us from blaming others for our own faults; help us to heal the wounds we have thoughtlessly inflicted.

Help us to face defeat with courage and to carry success with humility.

Keep us from the pride that blinds the mind and from the anger that locks the heart.

Make us loyal to our convictions in the face of falsehood; but help us to speak the truth in love.

On this sacred night, draw us closer to Your teachings, closer to our people, and closer to You.

Amen.
